

DOUG MAKI

Doug has coached ski jumping in Coleraine, MN for over 40 years, has been the longtime caretaker at Mt. Itasca and been the energy behind the program for four decades.

He has coached more than 30 Junior Olympic teams for the Central Division and has travelled over 400,000 miles driving a van full of kids from the Iron Range to an estimated 1,000+ ski jump competitions. His passion has always been to teach kids to ski jump and he simply enjoys the joy the experience brings – all the excitement.

Doug has also been an active Masters Ski Jumper for nearly 30 years.
