

ALF ENGEN

Born in Norway; his first skis were home-made and used melted phonograph records for wax.

1929 Arrived in the US

1931 World ski jumping record-setter twice in one day; US Ski Jumping Champion

1932, 33, 34 US Ski Jumping Champion

1937 US Ski Jumping Champion; Canadian and North American Ski Jumping Champion

1939-41 National Jumping and Cross-country Combined Champion

1940-41 National Four-way Champion (jumping, cross-country, downhill, slalom); US Ski Jumping Champion

1941, 1942, 1947 National Downhill and Slalom Champion

1946 US Ski Jumping Champion

1948 Coach of US Olympic Ski Team

1956 National Ski Hall of Fame

1989 Professional Ski Instructors of America/Intermountain Hall of Fame

1948-1989 Director, Alf Engen Ski School, Alta, UT

Father of the powder skiing technique; Namesake for one of America's 10 most famous ski runs, Alf's High Rustler at Alta, UT